Upcoming Trainings, Workshops, and Courses

Inquiry Techniques Workshop
Grades K-5
Developing Science Investigations
Use of Questions, Technologies, and Applications
October 26, 2004
From 4-6 p.m.

Family Tools and Technology (FTT)
An award winning after school program that focuses on technological design and problem solving while supporting the application of mathematics and scientific principles. The FIT activities are appropriate for boys and girls in grades 4-7 as well as their parents/guardians.

For more information visit: www.tcnj.edu/~njssi

Check the TaLL website regularly for updates, current information and resources, and ideas for new lesson plans at: http://tall.intrasun.tcnj.edu

The TaLL Times staff invite you to send us your comments and suggestions on what you are infusing in your classrooms as a result of participating in the TaLL program.

Math:
Dr. Cathy Liebars liebars@tcnj.edu
Co-Principal Investigator (TaLL)
Henry Harms harms@tcnj.edu
Shelly Berman (Trenton District)

Co-Principal Investigator (TaLL):
Dr. Sharon Sherman, Professor and Principal Investigator
TaLL and New Jersey Statewide Systemic Initiative
shermans@tcnj.edu 609-771-2964

Project Director:
Mary Switzer switzer@tcnj.edu 609-771-2714

Technology Assistant:
Michelle Ordini ordini@tcnj.edu 609-771-2295
(fax) 609-771-3330